

COME OUT AND WILD RICE

Community Day
September 24th 2017

Come join us for an exciting day of traditional gathering and processing. Wild Rice Community Day will be located on the shore of Chemong Lake, so come and get connected to your traditional sources of food. Half a day is spent on water canoeing & gathering wild rice and the other half a day is spent on shore, roasting, dancing and winnowing Wild Rice the way we have for generations.

Register by calling (705)657-1098

Cost is by donation
