

June 5, 2017

CURVE LAKE FIRST NATION RIGHTS AND RESOURCES COMMITTEE

The Rights and Resources Committee is seeking Curve Lake First Nation members with a combination of personal attributes, knowledge/expertise and characteristics that ensure our Rights and Resources committee has a diversity of experiences, perspectives, information, connections, and skills to carry out its governing and voluntary functions for the Curve Lake First Nation Chief and Council. The appointed members shall be from the time of approval by Council until 3 months following the next First Nation election.

Seeking 2 (two) Curve Lake First Nation representative

The Rights and Resources committee works in partnership with the Curve Lake First Nation Chief and Council, and has a mandate to ensure that the Rights of its Members are being safeguarded; and that the community's resources are being protected and utilized for the community's benefit.

OBJECTIVES:

- a) Health and Well Being, Treaty, Education
- b) Water, Land, Air, Climate, Environment, Forestry
- c) Culture, Hunting, Fishing, Harvesting

Please have a written response into Lorenzo Whetung at LorenzoW@curvelake.ca or Ted Coppaway at tedc@curvelake.ca or drop it off at the Curve Lake Administration office with your name and contact information, your demonstrated commitment and desire to participate as well as a summary of relevant knowledge, education, and/or experience unique to the responsibility of the Rights and Resources committee member and any identification notes (eg. Availability, travel limitations, etc)

Deadline for Submissions is June 30, 2017 at 4:00 pm.