Customary Care Homes

Have you ever considered becoming a Customary Care provider? Customary Care is a temporary placement of a child in another community member's home, to keep the child close to their family and their culture.

Curve Lake is currently seeking Aboriginal families to become Customary Care providers for First Nation children on reserve. If you are interested in becoming a Customary Care provider, please contact Roxanne Lepine, Child Welfare Protection Worker @ 705-657-2557 ext. 408.
